

T. Harry Williams Center for Oral History Collection

ABSTRACT

INTERVIEWEE NAME: W. Henson Moore

COLLECTION: 4700.0048

IDENTIFICATION: U.S. Representative from Louisiana's Sixth Congressional District, 1975-1987

INTERVIEWER: Jim Harris of WJBO's "Topic Today" radio program

SERIES: WJBO Radio Interviews

INTERVIEW DATE: August 1975

FOCUS DATES: 1974-1975

ABSTRACT:

Tape 56

Moore's success as a freshman representative; concerns of his constituents; his district's poor economy; his suggestions to combat rising unemployment; welfare reform; government spending on social and economic programs; budget cuts; issues in upcoming congressional session; effects of deregulating oil; upcoming Louisiana governor election; possible Republican presidential candidates in election of 1976.

TAPES: 1 (T56)

TOTAL PLAYING TIME: 45 minutes

# PAGES INDEX: 1 page

RESTRICTIONS: Joint copyright is retained by the interviewee and interviewer and their heirs